

Om Sri Sai Ram

Sri Sathya Sai Human Values: Practical Application Course

The Zone I Educational Program Committee in partnership with the Program for Awareness of Human Values and Educare Committee is pleased to present the second course

Purpose

To rekindle in us the ancient wisdom present in Bhagawan's teachings, to course-correct and move forward toward our higher purpose in life, and to save and protect our suffering planet

Course Content

Swami teaches us to avoid compartmentalizing our lives into the spiritual and the mundane. Every aspect of our lives, whether it pertains to our home, work, or the community we live in, is designed for our spiritual development. Our values represent our personal guiding principles or life goals, which in turn guide our behavior in all aspects of life, including our home life, work life, and social life. The importance of values lies in their implementation, which this course aims to promote
