Dr. Dhurjati Mudigonda, Alumnus, Sri Sathya Sai Institute of Higher Learning, Prashanthi Nilayam, hails from an ardent Sai devotee family. Dhurjati learned to play the Veena under the tutelage of his father, Prof. Veerabhadraiah Mudigonda. Later, while studying at Prashanthi Nilayam, he was blessed with the opportunity to play Bhajans on the Veena in the divine presence of Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba. Dhurjati was also part of the Orchestra that accompanied various professional musicians visiting Prashanthi Nilayam. Br.Dhurjati graduated with a masters degree in Chemistry from Sri Sathya Sai Institute of Higher Learning and currently manages an R&D group at a paper manufacturing company in Ohio. He has served in various roles at Columbus Sai center and also as Regional Devotional Coordinator for Region 5. Dhurjati is currently serving Swami as National Devotional Coordinator & lives in Columbus, Ohio.
